Dear Centerville Road Family: We ask that you continue to wear masks and social distance. Many of our members have indicated those measures make them feel safer. As we deal with this present situation, we want to emphasize wearing of masks properly, covering the nose and mouth, while you are in the building. Again, thanks so much for your cooperation, please remember to continue to call on our members who may need help, and pray for our members that are teachers, first responders and health care professionals.

Thanks, the Elders

Scripture Reading: I Corinthians 12:1-11

THOUGHT: It's not as important to make a living as it is to make a life. -Hugh Ross

Grandfather picked up the phone to give his 5-year-old granddaughter, Hannah, a call. It had been several days since they had talked. When she got to the phone, she said, "Guess what?"

Grandfather said, "What?"

"I went to art class today!" He was about to ask her what she had drawn in art class when the little girl interrupted and said, "Guess what?"

"What?" he said.

"I learned to jump rope, today!" Grandfather laughed, and was just about to ask how many times she was able to skip rope without stopping when she again interrupted to say, "Guess what?"

"What?"

"We went for a walk to the park today!"

Here was a child for whom life was unfolding so rapidly, that she didn't have time to stop and explain what she'd done in art class, or how well she had skipped rope or what she had seen in the park. Not enough time for that. She needed to share her next "Guess what?"

The child was having "Guess what?" days!

Ever wonder how long it has been since we've had a "Guess what?" day?

How long has it been since our last discovery? How long has it been since our last moment of wonder and awe? How long has it been since our incredible feeling of joy? How long has it been since our last experience of the Divine Presence?

Of course, it's possible they've been there all along, and we have not recognized them. It is also possible that we simply have lost the art of experiencing the blessings that God gives to us in our lives.

Let's have another "Guess what?" day soon! Time to be thankful for such days that God brings into our lives. Consider Colossians 3:15-17.

Prayer thought:

My loving Father who art in heaven, every day can be a Guess What Day! Help me to have the eyes like a child to see the wonder, the mystery and the awe around me. Help me to see the beauty of today and to be thankful and to see the awesome wonder of your amazing grace in Christ Jesus my Lord.

In Jesus' holy name I pray, Amen.

TRUE OR FALSE?

The questions below are based on the gospel of Matthew (see the Bible readings to the left). Answer each statement True or False.

Circle the letter in the correct answer column. (For example, the first statement is false, so draw a circle around the N in the False column.) Then write each circled letter on the appropriately numbered line below to discover the secret word that tells why Jesus died.

| | TRUE | FALSE |
|--|------|----------|
| 1. Jesus healed Peter's wife (Matthew 8:14). | E | N |
| 2. Jesus fed the 5,000 with 2 loaves and 5 fish (14:17). | R | A |

SYS Updates for 2021

I am so excited for this year's SYS! I hope that you will make it a part of your weekly schedule to come and worship God with your fellow saints. Last year we had an online SYS. This year however, we are excited to be back in-person! There are 10 Tuesdays throughout the summer where you can bring your kids for the purpose of edification and growth in the knowledge and admonition of the Lord. I want to encourage you to be there, and to look closely at the following changes being made to the format for this year. Due to the novel Coronavirus, we are taking extra precautions.

1. There will be no meal provided by the host congregation. Any food or drink will be prepackaged. Please be prepared to feed those whom you bring.
2. The time frame for the worship service will begin at 7pm and end at 8pm. The host congregation is responsible for determining and communicating whether they will allow anyone to stay longer.
3. Details will be sent each week on Monday with any potential additional information.
4. You will notice with the attached calendar that a few congregations are hosting twice, this is not a mistake.

Last summer was vastly different from a typical summer, and while this summer is shaping up to be more in line with the usual, it will still be different. We humbly ask that you pray with us for a successful and faith-building series of messages on RENEWING our faith and passion for serving the Lord.

We have a wonderful opportunity this year to be sent text reminders and motivational messages throughout the summer with regards to SYS. Please have your groups text "SYS" to (972)-905-0856. You will receive a message asking for some basic information, please fill this out to opt in for these reminders.

If you have any questions, please contact Chris Carrillo at the following:
