APOLOGETICS SEMINAR WITH BRANYON MAY

March 25-27

Branyon May earned his Ph.D. in Astrophysics from the University of Alabama, where he held both research and teaching assistantships. He now combines his scientific and biblical passions serving as the General Manager of World Video Bible School (WVBS), a non-profit organization focused on the production of Bible-based, faith-building resources. He also serves as an Auxiliary Scientist for Apologetics Press, where he has written numerous articles supporting God's design in the Universe. Branyon and his wife, Alana (who also has degrees in Physics and Astrophysics), live and worship with their children at the Southwest church of Christ in Austin, Texas.

Widowhood is one of the potential challenges in life to be faced, for those who choose to marry. What are we doing to prepare for it? How can we better serve those who have found themselves in this life-altering circumstance? Join us for this special workshop to explore God's perspective on widowhood, how to cope with our overwhelming challenges in life, and discuss the personal impact of love and loss.

Dean Miller, Facilitator

Graduate of Freed-Hardeman University
Preacher for over 40 years
Married for over 41 years
Widowed in 2013
Founder of Widowhood Workshop Ministry
Author of "When The End Comes" and "Before the End Comes"
